TOP 5
DIGITALIZED FEATURES OF
MANAGING INSTITUTIONS EFFICIENTLY

We live in an era where managing administrative tasks is not a burdensome part for institutes. Technology has drastically transformed the dynamics of the education system.Managing institutes' affairs manually is very challenging in this fast pace world. To manage administrative tasks efficiently, provide a better educational experience to students, and assure parents of child's progress, institutes are rapidly shifting to Institute Management Systems. indici-edu is a cloud-based Online Institute Management System that provides features to fulfill your institute's needs beyond your expectations. indici-edu boasts features that enhance the performance of institutes substantially.

We'll walk you through the top 5 features of a highly effective Institute Management System.

Online Fee Collection

Collecting and keeping track of fee bills in institutes is a laborious task. Any effective institute management software has the facility of online fee collection.Institute can collect the fee bills through multiple payment channels integrated with indici-edu. All billing and payment information gets stored in one place, making it easy and manageable for institutes.It also facilitates the parents to pay fee bills with just a click of a button, right from the comfort of their home. Parents can also view fee bills through their portal.

Virtual Classes

An effective institute management system provides an engaging and interactive virtual learning environment. indici-edu provides you features, such as video conferencing, online whiteboards, instant -messaging tools, and much more for real-time collaboration.It gives a smooth virtual learning experience for both students and teachers.

Assignments & Assessments

Managing assignments & assessments has never been easy. indici-edu makes distribution and collection of assignments & assessments handy for both instructors and students.With real-time alerts and notifications, reminders for due dates, and automatic naming/sorting, management of assignments & assessments becomes effortless.

Financial Management

Finance & capital management is the backbone of any institute. Real-time financial information serves as the lifeblood for a well-managed and efficient institute.indici-edu has implemented an internationally practiced "Double-Entry" accounting system, which generates filter-based up-to-date financial reporting, enabling accurate and information-based decision making.

Branch Management

Managing multiple branches has always been a challenge for institute managers. indici-edu's centralized dashboards make the whole process of managing multiple branches hassle-free. Branch managers can manage multiple branches at the push of a button.With indici-edu, your institute doesn't have to do much. We do it all for you. indici-edu provides all these exciting features to streamline your virtual learning experience that too, in just 1 PKR per student. It doesn't get better than this!